VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1868. NO. 260

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

[From the New York "Revolution," May 21.]

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY DAGUERREOTYPED, BY A RADICAL AND "LOYAL" PEN.

Republicans elected Andrew Johnson for party success; they impeached him for party success; and since the day the scepter of power came into their hands, they have worked for party success rather than the nation's life.

While they have deceived the people with the cry of Constitutional amendments, loyalty, negro suffrage, and impeachment, they have shown themselves disloyal to the grand principles of our government, by their attempts to drag down the Federal Constitution to their low platform; to force negro suffrage on the South while repudiating it in the Northern States; and after proving the President guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, strangling impeachment with their own hands.

And now the handwriting on the wall warns them that they are "weighed in the balance and found wanting." The Republican party stands to day with its ranks broken, divided, distracted, blasted, and the scepter of power has passed from it forever. But this is no cause of sorrow, for the sooner this party is scattered to the four winds of heaven, the sooner will the scales fall from the eyes of the people, and they will see that their leaders have been but blind leaders of the blind.

Jeremy Bentham says, "the people cannot be too distrustful of their rulers." When the American people learn that men and parties are nothing unless based on principle, and that whether under a Republican or Democratic dynasty, we have the same results, they will awake to the responsibility of self government.

As we turn over the pages of history we can see how nations, groaning under taxation, ignorance and poverty, have been deluded, blinded and destroyed, without dreaming that we, ourselves, are to day the thoughtless victims of selfish and crazy rulers who think only of their own aggrandizement. Just as Rome, with fetes and feasts, with holidays and deadly combats between man and beasts, with gladiatorial exhibitions in crowded amphitheaters, turned the people's thought from their wrongs—so do our rulers to-day, with caucusus, conventions, campaigns, impeachment trials and the coarse brutality of the press and politicians, amuse the people, degrade the public taste, and destroy the virtue of the nation. Unthinking leaders inflame the North against rebeldom, and damn every man who dares put in a plea for justice and mercy to the South, with the unmeaning name of "copperhead." To rouse the people's wrath they point them to the bones of their brave sires and sons bleaching on all those Southern plains, forgetting that with their own hands they built that sepulchre where our brave dead now sleep. The chain that held the black boy in the everglades of Florida and the slave girl in a New Orleans market was fastened round their neck by New England's sons and daughters. Through our avarice and selfishness the land of orange groves and flowers lies bleeding and desolate to-day. Blame not the South, but our own constitutions, creeds and codes.

But whiles we ended with the sword a slavery of brute force, and overturned the Southern oligarchy, by cunning legislation we have substituted another form of slavery, in our own system of finance. In our national debt and taxation, we have placed the whole labor of the country at the mercy of a monied aristocracy of banks, bondholders, and land monopolists. Having just escaped from the yoke of 400,000 slaveholders, we are about to bow our necks to the yoke of 400,000 bondholders. Flushed with conquest, these "High Art Swindlers" have bought up the nation's virtue and choked our prophets who have dared to speak.

NEW YORK THE CENTRE OF THE WORLD.

Everything points to the future greatness and controlling influence of New York as the centre of the world. The rapid development of commerce and intercourse with the nations of Europe on one hand, and with the teeming populations of Asia on the other, will make the United States the highway of trade for both the Eastern and Western flemisphere. Within two years one Pacific railroad at least will be completed, and in the course of a few years several others. The travel and a large part of the most valuable trade with China and the other nations of Eastern Asia, both for ourselves and Europe, will pass across the American Continent, and New York will be the gate of ingress and egress on this side, as San Francisco will be on the other side. The time from Europe to China this way will be little over a month, and from New York less than a month. Then we shall soon have instant telegraphic communication with Asia by way of Alaska and the Aleutian Islands, as we now have with Europe through the Atlantic cable. In fact, it is impossible to imagine the wonderful results that must flow from the progress of these events and the age. New York, consequently, is destined to be the greatest city on the globe and the financial and intellectual centre of the world. We shall see, too, great changes in the city itself. The island will be covered from the Battery to Spuyten Duyvil creek with population; the Park will be surrounded by palatial residences and terraces; Washington Heights will be the site of magnificent villas, and the centre of financial business and banking will leave the cramped locality of Wall street and be established round the City Park, City Hall and new Post Office. These, however, are but a few of the changes and vast improvements we may expect within the life-time of the present generation. Our citizens and the people of the United States may well look with pride upon the grand future of this beautiful metropolis; for it is bound to eclipse all the cities of ancient or modern times.—N. Y. Herald.

"EXCEPT INDIANS NOT TAXED."

In every grand scheme of fraud some little fragment will stick out and reveal the deceit of the whole.

Thus in the great national swindle called "universal manhood suffrage," these few words, "except Indians not taxed," show the utter hollowness and pretence of the stuffed figure before which Radicalism kneels and renders its homage.

The idea is that manhood is entitled to suffrage as an inherent, inalienable right, which no demands of society and no civil polity can disturb or limit without the infliction of injustice and wrong. If there is any sincerity in the apostles and followers of this creed, how is it that no voice is or ever has been raised in favor of "Indians not taxed?" If Radicalism cannot silently acquiesce, but even makes this exception in its own special acts of legislation, how transparent the hypocrisy of the entire doctrine becomes. If "Indians not taxed" may be excepted on the basis of universal manhood suffrage, why not "Chinamen not taxed," and "Africans not taxed," and any other class "not taxed," which the policy of a well-organized civil society may see fit to exclude? Has not the Indian manhood? and then does not suffrage follow as a right? And if "not being taxed" alienates this right, is not the door wide open for the exclusion of any class of "manhood"?

Lo! the poor Indian! He belongs to womanhood, or else the manhood suffrage idea is all stuff and deception.—Richmond Dispatch.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,
ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.
By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.
A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from the fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.
To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.
The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.
One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.
One in Boston, Mass., 103 subscribers in four days.
One in Memphis, Tenn., 106 subscribers in five days.

FORNEY ON "THE NEW REBELLION."

Forney's Press says:

"The impeachment verdict is hailed from Virginia to Texas as a signal to raise the slogan of rebellion and murder. Every now and then we get a telegram that reveals the animus of the rebel mind:

William Simons was murdered on Friday night, near Johnsonville, on the Tennessee river. His body was found next morning with his throat cut. He was a Northern man, and was killed probably for his money."

What a villain! The failure of impeachment, as the Richmond Whig says, did not cause a ripple on the broad surface of the South. The people felt a disgust and contempt for the whole impeachment affair, and cared but little as to its termination.—As to "the verdict" being "the signal to raise the slogan of rebellion and murder," a more atrocious and barefaced calumny was never uttered. The only disorders that have occurred, since the impeachment verdict was rendered, took place in Washington, right under Forney's nose. We refer to the murder of white men, and the burglaries and thefts committed by the negro election mob which Forney addressed and encouraged. We say encouraged, because he attempted to work upon their passions and incite them to violence, when he charged in his address that two of General Lee's disbanded regiments were in Washington, and had been engaged in the effort to carry the election against the negroes.

Forney's telegram does not say who killed "William Simons," or give any particulars of his death, and yet he chooses to assume that he was killed by "rebels," and, upon this assumption, raises the cry of "the rebellion renewed." He speaks of similar telegrams of the same purport, received "every now and then." Why does he not publish them? If a new rebellion has broken out, the Commanding General's in the South are ignorant of it. Surely they ought to know.

WHEAT AND OAT CROP.—The scarcity of corn and wheat, in many portions of the State, renders the condition of the poor, especially, exceedingly distressing. Many find it difficult to obtain bread for their families, much less food for the working animals to complete the growing crop. Hence, great anxiety has been felt in regard to the wheat and oat crops. These have been the chief reliance of many to sustain life until the corn crop is made. The accounts we have generally received of the prospects of the wheat and oat crops have been very favorable. Recently, fears have been entertained from rust,—in many places it having appeared on the blade. Should the rust greatly damage the wheat, (and the weather for several days has been favorable to its progress,) we may reasonably calculate upon still greater want. Every thing admonishes our people of the necessity of economy and frugality in the use of our resources. Waste or neglect may prove seriously injurious. We shall be glad if our correspondents in different parts of the State, when writing on business, would speak of the condition of the people and the state of the crops.

A special correspondent at Washington writes us that "the reconstruction committee is engaged in reconstructing the Virginia Constitution, and as soon as they have finished it, it will be submitted to the people."—Richmond Dispatch.

It will be remembered that, during the session of the Virginia Convention, it was represented that efforts were made by Radicals in Congress to restrain and control that body in preparing the Constitution, but it manifested but little regard to the suggestions of the Congress. We presume, therefore, that the Reconstruction Committee has it now under consideration, with a view to its modification. In this State, the new Constitution was done up more to the liking of Congress and under its advice.—Congress will, therefore, propose no changes in that offensive paper. A short test of its character, by the people, will lead to an entire change.

WE LEARN that the leading Radicals hereabouts are much discouraged at the aspect of the times. We heard of one declaring, a day or two since, that each day's delay by Congress in admitting the Southern States was a serious blow to them, (Quere—their pockets?) and that the nominations at Chicago had been received with no enthusiasm whatever. This last fact is certainly so. Grant has none of the elements of the popular hero about him—such as were possessed by Harrison and Taylor.—He is cold, suspicious, selfish, without a salient point of character that is attractive.—He is recognized, universally, as a mere tool and catspaw, without any political convictions of his own.

VERY TRUE.—In the Senate, on Saturday, while the Omnibus bill was under discussion, Mr. Senator Wilson indulged in a vulgar tirade against the white population of the South, full of impudent misstatements. He read a letter from one of his friends in the South, who said "he considered his life to be worthless"—a remark some would consider applicable to nine-tenths of his carpet-bag allies and recruits.

IN A RECENT debate in the Senate, Mr. Doolittle referred to the recent votes in Ohio, Michigan, and Oregon, and said this was only a sprinkling compared with the great shower which was to follow. The party identified with this heresy would be trampled in pieces as soon as the election shall come.

TAXATION.

The people of the United States are not only burdened, but pressed down, with taxation. Seven years ago, the people had been so used to small taxes, that no man or party would venture upon any scheme of additional taxation, without first educating the people up to it. In that short period the expenditures of the general government have grown so enormously as to threaten bankruptcy to the nation. Under Radical rule, these burdens are not likely to be lessened. The people of Great Britain have been groaning under their taxes, to an extent to awake the sympathies of our people. Now, our burdens are much greater than those of the British people. The following table gives a comparative view of the taxation under each government for 1867, embracing the leading items, prepared by the New York World:

"Comparative statement of some of the expenditures of the United States and Great Britain for the year 1867, made up from the report of the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the statement of Mr. Schenck, Chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means:

	United States.	Great Britain
Interest on debt	$143,781,591	$128,807,270
Civil service	51,110,627	41,088,095
Army—
War proper,	283,841,555
Pensions	10,936,551
Bounties	11,292,859 116,160,965	74,383,946
Navy	31,094,011	55,912,513
Total	$342,086,594	$298,201,924
Excess against the United States		43,884,770

"MR. DOOLITTLE replied that the negro is the only race that can exist and thrive in the tropics. In answer to a further question, he admitted that the negro here is superior to his African brother, but claimed that it is because of his contact with the whites and their civilization. Senators would find that their States would not respond to these doctrines. They could not wrench the government of the country from the hands of civilized men, and put it into the hands of half-civilized negroes, and be supported by the people. Ohio, Michigan, and Oregon were but the drops that foretold the coming storm. He had in his hand a memorial signed by a thousand intelligent white men of Alabama.

MR. CONNESS—Rebels?

MR. DOOLITTLE—Some of them were in the rebellion, and some of them were not. In my opinion, those men are rebels who are against the Constitution. He is a rebel that is opposed to the Constitution, and would trample it under his feet, whether he belong to California or to any other place."

The foregoing episode in the Senatorial proceedings occurred on Saturday. Mr. Doolittle spoke the truth throughout. It will be impossible,—however discouraging the present aspect of affairs may be,—to wrench the control of this government from the hands of white men and put it into the hands of an inferior and semi civilized race. And it is true that the only "rebels" now in the country are those who are breaking down all the bulwarks of the Constitution. There are ten times as many "rebels" in the little State of Rhode Island as there are in the large State of North Carolina.

GREELY'S CALCULATION.

The New York Tribune clamors loudly for organization in the Radical party. Of the Southern States, it thinks four may go against them. It claims as certain sixteen of the "loyal States," (so called,) as follows:

Maine,	5	Indiana,	13
New Hampshire,	5	Kansas,	3
Massachusetts,	12	Michigan,	8
Vermont,	5	Tennessee,	10
Rhode Island,	4	Iowa,	8
Minnesota,	4	Missouri,	11
Wisconsin,	8	Nevada,	3
West Virginia,	5
Illinois,	16	Total,	120

As it will take 159 votes to elect, Greely comes to the conclusion that the election of Grant and Colfax will require the Radical party to carry several of the doubtful States, or the whole of the Southern States. Altogether, Greely is frightened.

LAND AGENCY.—A correspondent from Warren informs us that the Agency of Mr. Van Syckel, Bound Brook, New Jersey, is doing much to direct attention to North Carolina. He says:

"The Jerseymen are beginning to come out to North Carolina, to look at and buy our lands. Mr. Van Syckel, and his friend from New Jersey, spent several days with me last week, and were highly pleased with our soil and climate, and numbers of them wish to come and settle with us, if they can meet with suitable encouragement."

We hope to see many a Jersey and Pennsylvania farmer coming into the State, buying lands and making this State a permanent home. We welcome all honest, true-hearted, industrious farmers to come and settle among us. But we have no use for carpet-baggers and scallawags, who come to spy out our poverty and to make us poorer. These office seeking carpet-bag strangers,—who seek office by corrupting the negroes,—are worse than the locusts of Egypt. Without character, or position at home, corrupt and corrupting all within their reach, they are a moral pestilence in the country, which our people loathe as they do cholera or yellow fever.

We understand that Rev. P. H. Joyner, Henderson, N. C., has become an Agent of Mr. Van Syckel's Land Agency.

Says the Portland (Me.) Argus concerning the Democratic National Convention:

"There is manifested a purpose to cast aside all prejudice and personal feeling and to consider the question of candidates only with reference to the success of our cause, which is in fact that of the Union and the Constitution. With such a purpose and in such a state of feeling the Convention can hardly fail to make a wise decision; and that decision will, we have no doubt, be cordially endorsed and sustained by the Conservative sentiment of the country."

ANOTHER "TROOLY LOIL" HEART MADE HAPPY.—There is great rejoicing among the "hog-backs" of the SIXTH Congressional District. It is understood that Gen. Meade has given the certificate of election to Congress from that district to one John A. Wimpey, a scallawag from the auriferous regions of Lumpkin county, notwithstanding the fact that Col. John H. Christy, of the Athens Watchman, the Democratic candidate, received a majority of the votes cast at the recent election.—Macon Journal and Messenger.

A very singular and interesting report from England says that the Bishop of London has ordered that the President of the United States shall be prayed for along with the Queen and the Parliament.

EBEN BUTLER AND HIS WILMINGTON COTTON.—The New York World suggests that the present is a favorable opportunity for the presentation to Congress of a letter written by Levi R. Greene, first assistant engineer of the United States Navy, and sent to Senator Anthony, with the full approval of Commander William A. Parker, U. S. N., then commanding the James River squadron. The letter is dated January 14, 1865, on board the United States steamer Massasoit, then lying in James river. It refers to an interview, December 31, 1864, with William Howard, an Englishman, "a Rebel sympathizer and secessionist." The writer says:

"The morning of the day I met him, we passed up from Norfolk together; in reply to my inquiries why he left the railroad, he said he was "on a little money-making expedition," showed me a passport to Newbern, North Carolina, furnished, he said, through General Butler, and then, after some preliminaries, said in substance that a friend of Butler, named Peters, then in New York, had three thousand bales of cotton in Wilmington; that they were going to get it out; Butler was to work the thing through and have half the money; that he was to furnish passes * * he furthermore stated what I had already begun to see, to wit: that if Wilmington had been captured, Butler would have lost his cotton, as it would have fallen into our hands."

The attack on Fort Fisher was begun by Admiral Porter's fleet, December 24, 1864. Butler's troops landed and were repulsed the day following. Porter declared "that under a proper leader the fort could have been taken." Butler swore before the Committee on the Conduct of the War that the capture was impossible. Nevertheless, Butler was removed from the command of the Army of the James, January 8, 1865; Fort Fisher was taken January 15; and February 22, Wilmington, cotton and all, was captured. While Congress is investigating the charges of corruption, this matter is worth looking into."

ORIENTAL HUMOR.—Burlingame's Chinamen. The New York Herald has the following:

"While arranging one of the groups at this place, Teh, who speaks English very well, had a ludicrous fall from a chair. In his descent, his cue, or "pig tail," of very respectable length, flew upward, and the end of it in some manner got entangled on a nail in the wall. Perceiving the oddity of the situation, he at once curled up his body and, with a laugh, requested he might be presented to the Gothamites in that attitude. When they had tired of their visit to Mr. Gurney's gallery—the young men of the party supplying themselves with photographs of the ladies who appeared in the "White Fawn"—they prepared to return to their hotel.

Near the doorway to the street, on their exit, a number of ladies stood to scrutinize them, and while the carriages were being drawn up a temporary halt on the sidewalk was made. A lady standing near the rather handsome form of Tung, forgetting good-breeding in her desire to acquire hirsute knowledge under difficulties, very deliberately took in her ungloved hand his long and elaborate plaited cue, black as coal and almost as coarse as the hair of a "big Ingin," and critically examined it. Tung eyed the "lady" for a moment, a smile illuminating his broad, flat face, as he glanced at her own coiffure, and then bowing, said: "All mine! all mine!" The inquisitive feminine retired in disgust, and Mr. Tung, the smile on his dark face deeper and broader than before, entered the carriage with others of his companions and was presently rolled up Broadway."

SOUTHERN CHURCHES DESTROYED OR DAMAGED DURING THE WAR.—In the Protestant Episcopal Convention, sitting in Charleston, S. C., on the 15th ult., an interesting report relative to the number of churches damaged or destroyed in the diocese during the war was read by the Rev. C. C. Pinckney. The report gives a touching picture of the sad condition of once happy and prosperous religious congregations in the South, and concludes as follows: "To sum up the losses of the diocese, it appears that ten churches have disappeared; that every church between the Savannah river and Charleston has been injured, some stripped even of weather boarding and flooring; that almost every minister in that region of the State has lost home and library; that along the entire seaboard, from North Carolina to Georgia, where our Church had flourished for more than a century, there are but four parishes which maintain religious services; that not one, outside the city of Charleston, can be called a living, self-sustaining parish, able to support a minister; that their clergy live by fishing, by hunting and mechanic arts; and that almost every church, whose history appears on this record, has lost its communion plate, often a massive and venerable set, the donation of an English or colonial ancestor. The pecuniary losses might be repaired if the diocese were as in days gone by. But in its present impoverished condition, no hope remains of speedy restoration. This generation can scarcely behold it."

JUSTICE OVERTAKES ANOTHER RADICAL.—A few years ago one Callicot was elected to the State Legislature in New York. There was just one Democratic majority in the House, so that a change of one vote would give the Assembly to the Radicals. Callicot sold out to them for $1200. The fact was proved beyond doubt, yet the Italicals nominated him for re-election the next year, but he was overwhelmingly defeated. Greeley stuck to him and finally succeeded in getting him appointed Collector of Internal Revenue under Mr. Lincoln. It soon became apparent that he was defrauding the government and Johnson removed him, against the clamorous efforts of the Greeleyites to have him retained. He has just been tried in Court, upon the charge of defrauding the government, found guilty by the jury, and sentenced to the Penitentiary.

MR. DAVID MACRAE.—We regret very much to learn, by a private letter received in this city, from Mr. David Macrae, that he has been so unfortunate as to lose a large portion of the notes taken by him in his late tour through the South, and from which he had intended to make up a volume for publication, on his arrival home. These notes were contained in a satchel which was stolen from him at some point between Baltimore and New York, and their loss will prove an irreparable one. They have been advertised for extensively, but no clue has yet been obtained of them.

Mr. Macrae was to have left New York for Liverpool on Saturday the 30th ult., and we presume that he is now nearly across the water.—Wil. Post.

The rottenness at the heart of Radicalism is rapidly working out to the surface. This process is described by that common phrase, "mortification has taken place." The subject is becoming so offensive that its oldest friends are beginning to draw off from it. But as with physical, so with moral rottenness, it has its attractions for many. The dead animal, deserted by most living things, draws the wolves and the buzzards, as the decaying carcass of Radicalism furnishes the choicest banquet to the Butlers, the Forneys, and other human beasts of prey.—Rich. Whig.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.
DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

No. POLICIES 52,700.
DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10 41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7 17, and in 1867, $4 90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,309; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,309; to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,297 64, making a grand total of $797,307 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the anniversary of the policy.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 25
BROOKLYN	1 19
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 16
EQUITABLE	1 13
MANHATTAN	1 10

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its negotiations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.
These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

BLACK CROOK.—Tucker Hall was as crowded last night, as it has probably ever been, on any similar occasion, to witness the performance of the Black Crook by Templeton's Corps. The rendition gave very general satisfaction, while the spectacular displays were gorgeous and impressive.—No expense seems to have been spared to produce the drama as perfectly as, we suppose, it can be produced by an itinerant Company. If repeated applause is an evidence of appreciation, the Black Crook was a great success, last evening.

SOAP FACTORY.—We learn that there is a gentleman here from Philadelphia, putting up a soap factory. He contemplates pretty extensive arrangements and will connect with it some other business. Keep the ball moving!

GARDENS.—The late rains have been of great service to the gardens, which were suffering. Vegetables are now abundant and will continue to be for some time.—These will relieve the pinching want in many cases, which we fear now exists to a great extent.

DRIED FRUIT.—We observe that our country merchants are announcing to the people that they are ready to purchase any quantity of dried fruit, blackberries, &c.—Messrs. J. S. Scott & Co., at Graham, have issued their circular. This is a good idea.

STATE NEWS.

The "census man" thinks that Newbern has 15,000 inhabitants. This is, probably, a considerable exaggeration. It is afflicted with a much larger floating and idle negro population, however, than any other place in the State.

The Wilmington babies are "turned out" on the streets every fine evening. The Wilmington Journal speaks of the display as a "grand review of the brigade of Wilmington infant-ry." The "Local" noticed, one afternoon, besides scattering members of the brigade, a solid line of ten carriages. Some fair day, let all the Raleigh mothers send their babies to Capitol square, at a given hour. It will be a sight worth seeing.—We'll pit Raleigh for babies,—finer babies and more of them,—against any town of its size in creation.

The Wilmington Journal says that a gentleman now doing business in New York, but who resided in Cumberland county during the war, was surprised a few days since in the above named city by the return of a breastpin stolen from his family residence, in Cumberland county, by a party of Sherman's thieving "bummers." It is strange that the conscience of the thief or his friends should smite him or them after the lapse of all these years, subject as they were to a constant reminder by the name of the owner inscribed upon the pin.

In unloading one of the steamships of the Baltimore and Wilmington Steam Packet line, a few days since, a bale of rags was found nearly destroyed by fire, caused by spontaneous combustion.

Mr. John O. Wallace, Jr., has been appointed Postmaster at Concord, in place of J. F. Fink, resigned.

At a meeting of the Trustees of Concord Female College, last week, Rev. E. F. Rockwell was chosen President of the College, to succeed the Rev. J. M. M. Caldwell, who will take charge of Edgeworth, at Greensboro.' The Statesville American says that "Concord" could not fall into better hands.

Major Hayne Davis, of Statesville, exhibited to the Editor of the American, a fewdays since, a remarkable lusus naturæ. It is a chicken having four feet, four wings, two tails, two neck-bones and one head, on one body.

Skeptics have hitherto objected to the credibility of the Scriptural account of the adventures of Jonah with the whale, on the ground that the throat of the mammal was only a few inches wide, and, therefore, too narrow to admit of the passage of a man's body. But Professor Water house Hawkins says there is no need to assume that Jonah was swallowed by the whale. The head of the marine monster is two thirds as large as its entire body, and was, therefore, sufficiently commodious to serve Jonah as an abiding place for several days.—Exchange.

The Scriptural account does not say that Jonah was swallowed by a whale. It expressly states that "the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah up."

[We learn that the Hon. Thos. L. Clingman is one of the delegates from this District. We have not heard the name of the other or of the Alternates.]

Immediately after the Connecticut election, we told our Radical friends that Grant had lost prestige, and advised them not to nominate him. The result of the election in Oregon proves that our advice was good.—We confess, however, that it was not entirely disinterested.

We shall beat Grant so easily that there will be hardly any fun in the contest. We wish to be put to our trumps by a foeman worthy of our steel. As it is, our noble champion will have to enter the lists against a mute and a puppet, and the only difficulty of unhorsing it will be owing to the training which it received in riding the mule around the circus ring.—Pet. Index.

TOO BIG TO COUNT.—The task of counting out the dollars, at the rate of one dollar a second, or sixty a minute, which would discharge the two thousand five hundred millions of public debt of this country, would consume over two hundred years, if attempted by a single individual, and he could live to accomplish it. To cancel this debt would require, at the rate of cancellation now going on, the labor of six millions of operatives over two thousand years; and then it could not be done, for we are not wiping out any portion of it the present year, not do we bid fair to. The operations of this "blessing" have been "splendid" for all the Jay Cooke tribe. Millions per year have gone from the many poor into the pockets of the few rich.—Day Book.

BROWNLOW.—The many reports in relation to Brownlow's illness, originated, we believe, by the Knoxville Press and Herald, have been publicly denied by the Governor's family. Brownlow even went so far as to denounce the report as emanating from a rebel sheet and therefore false. Nevertheless, a gentleman who called on the Governor last Wednesday, states to the editor of the Nashville Banner, that he is really very ill. He was lying on a lounge, shaking all over with the palsy, and unable to speak.—His family do not apprehend serious results, but the gentleman referred to gives it as his opinion that he cannot survive many days.—Lou. Dem., June 2.

"Let us have peace," says Grant's fuglemen, aping their leader.

Who hir ders you? You have Congress by more than two-thirds in either branch. The President is not in your way, for you can and do override all his vetoes. The Supreme Court is not in your way, for you can and do abridge its jurisdiction. The army is not in your way, for you have created Grant military dictator in the Southern desert which you have made in ten States and called peace. These powers you have and had for three years, thus utterly unimpeded have you been on every hand. If you wanted peace why didn't you give us peace?—N. Y. World.

A Radical campaign song was sung at the Chicago Convention with the following classic refrain:

"Then rally again, then rally again
With the soldier, and sailor and bummer,
We will fight it out here, on the old Union line
No odds if it take us all summer."

A sweet lot are these "God and morality" bummers.

Butler and Bingham were foiled in their impeachment plot, so they take their revenge out on Miss Vinnie Ream. It is thought they can whip any woman of their weight in the country.

The Radical committee raised to investigate the bribery question is most appropriately called the "corruption committee," and there is not a Democrat on it.

ENGRAVING BY MACHINERY.

Two citizens of Leaksville, N. C., engaged in the watch and jewelry business, having occasion to do much engraving on metal, and finding that sort of work rather slow by hand, sought to invent a machine for the purpose. Their names are J. C. Guerant and B. J. Field. Truly necessity is the mother of invention; for without any familiarity with the mechanical arts, outside of their particular line, and with nothing to guide them but their own talents, they constructed an apparatus that supplied their want. One of its earliest achievements was to engrave the Lord's Prayer in microscopic characters inside of a wedding ring. Under a powerful magnifier all the letters are seen distinct and perfect. One thing leads to another, and in the course of their labors they discovered that the same mechanical principle could be applied to the making of fine engravings on steel, or copper, or wood; to the execution of the most delicate medallion and geometrical lathe work; in fact, to the performance of every task where a graver is required. Having no knowledge of contrivances now extensively employed by bank note engravers for ruling and various ornamentations, they got up a machine which included a mastery of all that, and all the common everyday toil of the burin besides. Such drudgery as engraving the rollers for calico printing, or door plates, or stencil plates, is done as easily as slicing cucumbers. Pictures or designs can be reduced with the precision of the photographic camera. The worker, who can learn the whole art in two or three hours, has nothing to do but follow with a tracer the lines of any design, and a sharp point of steel at the other end of a series of levers cuts a plate of metal or a block of wood. His hand moves with a free sweep of a good penman, and the graver unerringly obeys him. The adjustment of a rod determines whether the copy shall be the same size in all respects as the original, or smaller to almost infinite extent. While his hand is outlining letters an inch long, the steel point may be reproducing them so small as to be invisible except by the microscope. The apparatus, though very simple, considering the diverse kinds of service which it can perform, cannot clearly be described without diagrams. While it reminds one of Blanchard's lathe, the pantograph and the ruling machine in some respects, it is clearly an original invention, and has numerous useful capacities peculiar to itself. Persons who are interested in works of mechanical ingenuity and art may be gratified by a call upon Messrs. Guerrant & Field, at No. 207 Pearl street, where two of the machines are in operation.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT—ARRESTED.—We learn that three white men, living not far from Whitaker's Turnout, on the W. & W. R. R., have been arrested on suspicion of having caused the Railroad accident near that point a few nights since, and after undergoing an examination before the Military, have been committed to await trial for the offense, the data obtained being sufficient to justify this latter course. The men arrested are P. K. Kidder, his father-in-law and brother-in-law. The former is a discharged section master, and has entertained a grudge against Conductor James Borden, whose life he has several times threatened. Capt. Borden should have brought the train down on that night, but made an exchange at Weldon with Capt. Geo. Morrison. These facts coupled with the circumstance, that the rail had been evidently moved by an expert, caused suspicion to fall on Kidder; who was consequently arrested together with the other two men, who were also suspected of being at least accessories to the fact. The evidence afterwards collected by the military, seemed sufficient to warrant their committal for trial.—Wil. Star.

INTERESTING DECISION IN BANKRUPTCY.—Judge Giles, of the United States District Court for Baltimore, has refused to grant an injunction restraining the State courts from selling a bankrupt's property for debt. The executions had issued before the bankrupt's petition was filed.

Rev. Dr. Barnabas Sears, agent of the Peabody educational fund, while in Mississippi lately, expressed the hope to make the tour of the South with Mr. Peabody next winter.

The Society for Distributing Flannels, Frying Pans, Tracts and Moral Influences Generally to the Rocky Mountain Indians, will meet on Thursday in the usual place, at 2 P. M.—Boston Post.

Mr. Stanbery, with his family, left Washington, Friday morning, for his home opposite Cincinnati, Ohio.

Many a man thinks it a virtue that keeps him from turning a rascal, when it is only a full stomach. One should be careful, and not mistake potatoes for principles.

To vote for the Democratic ticket is to act like a white man. To go for the Radicals is to make a negro of yourself.

Everybody seems pleased with Schofield in the war department, it is so long since they had a decent man there.

Major M. J. Wicks has been elected President of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, vice Col. Sam. Tate, resigned.

Mrs. Senator Sprague, of Rhode Island, and Miss Chase, both daughters of the Chief Justice, are in Richmond and occupy rooms at the Ballard.

Vinnie Ream is to lose her studio. She had better come to Lonisville and go on a bust with us.—[Prentice.

We notice that the Radical papers take pains to convince the Democrats that it would be bad policy to run General Hancock for President.

The surrender of private dispatches by the telegraph companies is the first surrender to Butler on record.—Exchange.

There are eighty negroes in the South Carolina House of Representatives. The hall is well ventilated.

Grant's letter may be summed up in two lines: "Gentlemen: I don't care to have any ideas of my own, but will act as a figure head to your machine. Smoke I"

Several of the most obnoxious and abusive of the Radical clerks have been dismissed from the Treasury and Interior Department.

The Massachusetts Senate has refused to pass the bill forbidding the application of corporal puhishment in the public schools to females.

THE WOOLLEY AFFAIR—"ALL SMOKE."

WASHINGTON, June 9, M.

Woolley's statement is given on the ground that Shook's evidence relieved Woolley from the confidence involved by professional relations. It shows that Woolley was here, for the purpose of influencing the Ways and Means Committee regarding the whiskey tax, in Shook's interest.—Woolley's proceedings in this respect are not fully stated, but no corrupt operations are evident.

Seventeen thousand, one hundred dollars of the questioned money are and have been in the safe of the Metropolitan Hotel. It appears, from the affidavits, that Woolley, Shook, and others, were at the Metropolitan Hotel, talking politics and proposing bets. Woolley threw the money on the table, requesting Shook to hold it, and left the room. Shook took no notice of Woolley's remark, or the money. Van Valkenburg, regarding neither Woolley nor Shook as in a proper condition to have charge of so large a sum, took the money and deposited it with his own valuables, in the safe of the Metropolitan Hotel. The parties separated and had no communication during several days, during which time the discordant evidence of Woolley and Shook was taken.

The whole affair amounts to nothing.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 9, P. M.

HOUSE.—The Chinese reception attracted an immense crowd. The usual proceedings occurred.

A Bill from the Reconstruction Committee, dividing Texas into three States, was ordered to be printed.

The Bill inaugurating Southern State officers was read three times and passed—115 to 31.

The Tax Bill was resumed, and adjourned.

SENATE.—Mrs. Eliza Potter, of Charleston, S. C., petitions for a reimbursement of forty thousand dollars expended for the support of Union prisoners by herself and family during the war. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

The Omnibus admission Bill was resumed.

Alabama was added to the list by a vote of 22 to 21.

Republicans voting nay were, Colo, Conkling, Edmunds, Fessenden, Frelinghuysen, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill, of Vermont, Trumbull, and Yates.

A motion to strike out the provision nullifying the Georgia relief clause, was discussed all day. The argument took a wide range. It is claimed that without this clause the Georgia Constitution would have been defeated, and Congress would defeat the will of the people by nullifying it.

Others argued that aside from its unconstitutionality it was the first step toward the repudiation of the national debt.

The argument indicated that the Senate will, undoubtedly, persist in nullifying the relief clause.

Without a vote the Senate went into Executive session and adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 9 P. M.

Indian war rumors are on the increase—that Sheridan has sent arms to the frontier to arm settlers. Col. Leavenworth who, heretofore, defended the Indians, now favors the witholding annuities and prosecution of severe measures.

The following is the bill passed in the House to-day:

"Be it enacted, &c.: That the Legislatures of each of the States of Arkansas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia and Alabama, elected under the Constitutions therein framed and adopted in pursuance of the provisions of an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2nd, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, be and hereby are authorized to meet on such day as may have been fixed either in such Constitution or by a proclamation of any officer authorized to convene said Legislature by the Convention which framed such Constitution, and if no day shall have been fixed as aforesaid, or, if the day so fixed for the meeting of the Legislature of either of said States shall have passed, or shall have so nearly arrived before the passage of this Act, that in the opinion of the Governor elect there might not be time for the Legislature to assemble on the day so fixed, such Legislature may be convened within thirty days after the passage of this Act by the Governor of said State.

Section 2nd. That whenever either of said States shall be admitted to representation in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of such State duly elected and qualified under the Constitution thereof may be inaugurated without delay and the Government of such States shall thereupon be transferred to the civil authorities thereof.

Section 3rd. That it shall be the duty of all civil and military officers exercising authority in either of said States to afford all practical aid and protection to the officers of such State in carrying out the provisions of this Act, and any such officer, who shall wilfully withhold such aid and protection, or shall wilfully prevent, hinder or delay the meeting of either the said Legislatures, or the inauguration of any of the said State officers, or of any other civil or military officer, under either of said State authorities shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, before any Federal or State court, of criminal jurisdiction, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, at the discretion of the court."

Woolley is still confined—waiting Butler's convenience.

The Proprietor of the Metropolitan Hotel had Woolley's seventeen thousand and one hundred dollars in the Committee room. Butler counted it.

Municipal affairs are in statu quo.

STEAMER ASHORE.

NEWBERN, June 9, P. M.

The Steamer Terry, from New York to-day, reports the Steamship Nevada of the New York and Mexican line, which left New York on the 3rd. instant, went ashore at Hatteras on Friday and sunk Saturday in ten fathoms water. The passengers and crew were saved, except, one of the latter, who was lost in an attempt to get out an anchor. The passengers lost most of their baggage.

The vessel and cargo is a total loss. Two lady passengers have gone to Norfolk in a steamer. The rest of the passengers and the Captain of the vessel will be here to-night.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1868.

THE JOSH BILLINGS PAPERS.

JOSH TETE-A TETES WITH A SCHOOL MARM.

My Dear Miss Jerushy Stebbins, Esq:

Yure lengthy and hyacintine letter arrove yesterday by the 7 o'clock mail, and tho thare waz much into it that was way above my edukashun, still I could every how and then ferret out sum ov the commonest ov it. The idees want so new as I have seen, but I seldum have cum across, in my travels, enny longer words, or more ov em, harnessed together.

It must be very happee tew hav so mutch left ov language, such a flux of balmy and sweet-scented paragraphs, sutch slipperee undulashuns in the way ov cadence, sich heaven-bedewed pauzes, with exklamation pints az thick as the pins on a boling alley.

It must have kost yu quartz ov midnite kerosene ile tew have sed so much that waz small, in diktionary that glitters like a new tin roof, smiled upon by the morning glance of aurora.

But few, alas! how few! ever grab this gorgeous power, which seems tew be az natral tew yu az a peakock's tail in full bloom.

I envy yu, Miss Stebbins, but envy iz my best gate. I never kan trot up to yure style and reach the etherial top which you roost on, and perforate the resplendent sublimitys ov the kookave skey. I wuz bilt for muddy going. yu might as well ask an elephant tew climb a greased liberty pole, tail fust, and deliver a 4th of july orashun on the top ov it tew the listening churubs in the attik world.

Miss Jerushy Stebbins, if you would only turn yure genius into poetry for 6 weeks, yu would heave dubble sixes every time. I would bet mi last surviving dollar that Tennyson, the britsh poeter, would snuff out his tallow dip in despair, would turn oph hiz gass in agony, and would flux in the skalding blaze ov yure glory similar to a greased rag in the fiery furnace of Shadrack.

Longfellow would turn into a thin ghost, and walk the midnite earth in brogans.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, esq., would take a solitary drink and die az dead az the concluding paragraph ov an unorthodox sermin.

Whittier, the gentle and sainted Quiker, would burn his poems at the stake, and take up a job at ditching.

Dickens, the immortal Cheffles, would buy another breastpin, and go calmly and naturally, without a sigh or a salt embittered tear, into the jewelry business.

Old Homer, the dead giant of stanza, whose lion's skin the poetic asses of later times have galloped and gamboled under, and whose writings are the 10 commandments of poezy, which poets have ever since tried to keep by stealing them. Yea! the old patriark and proprietor of Parnassus would kick oph hiz deth fetters, and gathering up his scattered bones, would run out ov eternity to welcome you, Jerush, and probably insist upon having yu within the holy grip of wedlock.

These things are solemn fax, my dear girl, and dont be afraid tew let them sink into yu, for if yu only noo yourself for 6 or 8 consecutiv weeks yu are actually a poet, with 2 smoke-stacks; yu can't be held without a wired bit, yu kant be hid long enny how; an oyster mite as well attempt to hide in his shell, or the 10 ov clubs to change her spots.

And now, Miss Stebbins, let me drop a few words ov advice touching the best way tew git yourself in a condition for the coming fite.

Let the first thing yu du in the morning be to rise arly, soak yure teet often, drink yung hyson tea raw, abstain from awl animal food, espechily old cheese, (never yu mind what they say about cheese being good for a lively imaginashun, there ain't a mite ov truth in it;) eat eggs, humming birds' won't hurt yu the least; eat one a day on an empty stommuk; travel around the lot loose without any waterfall; don't drink eny alcohol, gin and jamaka rum iz only good for beginners in male poetry; studdy Webster's diktionary unabridged, put it under yure pillow at night, set on it thru the day, eat oph from it, work the fly leaves ov it up into curl papers; after you have got it all bi hart bile Webster in a potash kettle for 12 hours and drink up the juice.

This will make you a poetess, loveliest thing on this earth, a solace tew man, a fust-class mother, the best housekeeper between here and the village ov Dunkirk; yer will be as amiable as buttered toast; yer hart will be as warm and stretchy as a yarn stocking; yure dress as tidy as a violet; yure hair always parted exackly on the equator; yure face as fair and as free from wrinkles and care as a morning rose.

P. S.—Jerusha, mi lovely school mom, ov * * * * summers, if yer should fail to be a poetess by and by, after all that human natur and Billings has done for you, thare aint no poetry in the diktionarys, words fail to do the bizness, the souls of dandylions, and the kissing perfume of the langfid hollyank, the liquid love dalliance, that cums like a nektrous vapor from the brest ov the song bird pillowed among the leaves of the damask rose, when at the birth of twilight he woos his coy sweetheart from the shadows ov the sylvan shade, are aul, the whole pileing ov them, dead beats, and aint worth 10 cents a pound to work up into poetry.

It is barely possible that poetry may be made out ov ideas, and that words are mere gentlemen ushers, who bekum ridickilous just as soon as they git above or below their bizniess, and it is also barely possible, but hardly probable, that there are a grate meny now makin themselfs a very skanty kiverlid ov glory by mixing up poetry, who might make themselfs respektable and beloved by cultivating the small mental patch that heaven has rented tew them with white beans, or some other plain but nutritious sass.

HINT TO BALD-HEADED PEOPLE.—Frederick Kemp writes from the silver mines of Montana to the Herald of Health, giving the following hint in reference to a cure for bald-headedness: "A friend of mine who had the misfortune to be bald-headed, knowing that there is a wonderful invigorating power in the sun's rays, last spring, threw away his hat, and worked in the gulch all spring, summer, and fall, bare-headed, and also for the first few days at midday. For a few days, the rays of the hot sun on his head were almost unendurable; after that time he experienced no uneasiness whatever. The result was that in the fall he had a good head of hair. And in this experiment he was not alone. Several of his acquaintances who were bald headed, having followed the same plan, they were all fortunate enough to experience the same result." The editor adds that a similar case once came under his own observation, and professes to have no doubt that "the exposure of the skin to the air and sunshine, under proper circumstances, stimulates it to a healthy action, and with it those glands upon which the growth of the hair depends."

A Mr. Day advertises the loss of his dog. We hope he will succeed in finding him; for if "every dog has his day," every Day ought to have his dog.

As eccentric clergyman lately said in one of his sermons that "about the commonest proof we have that man is made of clay, is the brick so often found in the hat."

"Capital weather, Mr. Jones, capital weather. My wife's got such a cold that she can't speak. I like such weather."

CHEAP FOR CASH.

LOOK OUT FOR A CREECH!

JUST RECEIVED, $15,000 worth of new Spring and Summer Goods, which must, at all events, be sold within the next sixty days, if possible—If you want

LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

I have a beautiful assortment of the various styles and latest importations. It is a well known fact, and universally admitted, that to buy your goods. This can be, and is substantiated daily, by hundreds.

CREECH'S IS THE PLACE

If you want Cassimeres, Tweeds, Kentucky Jeans, Cotton and Linen Goods of all descriptions, and suitable for gentlemen, boys and children's wear, CREECH'S is the place to look for them.

At Low Prices,

Why, you may go up one side of Fayetteville Street and down the other; yes, and then the cross streets, and you will be bound to come to the conclusion that CREECH'S is the place you had better do your trading. If you want trimmed or untrimmed, CREECH'S is the place to get them. If you wish to purchase any style of

LADIES' BONNETS,

LADIES, MISSES OR CHILDREN'S HATS,

don't buy until you have seen CREECH'S, or you will miss a great bargain, as he has one of the largest and most beautiful assortments in the City. If you are looking for

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HATS,

Ladies, Men and Children's Shoes, why if you stop at Creech's you will surely be suited in style, quality and price.

I told the people, some time ago, that there was no house in the City that could or would sell goods cheaper than I, and now I intend to keep my word. I said then what I meant, and now mean what I say. So don't fail to come to CREECH'S, on R. Smith's corner.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
